M. E. CONFERENCE.

Fourth Day's Proceeding of the Omaha Meeting.

ONLY A HALF DAY'S SESSION.

The Afternoon is Devoted Entirely to Committee Work—Bishop Walden Presides at the Forenoon Meeting—Not a Very Harmonious Session.

OMAHA, May 6.—For the first time since the Methodist conference opened there was hardly a quorum present when Bishop Walden took the gavel yesterday and called the meeting to order, but before the devotional services, led by Rev. Jesse Kilpatrick, were finished the seats began to rapidly fill. A large number of women graced the galleries and parquette circle. Dr. Kilpatrick's prayer was one of the most powerful delivered during the conference thus far, and from the fervent responses one would imagine that a revival was in progress.

As soon as the preliminaries were concluded, Dr. Edwards, of New York, arose to a question of privilege and withdrew some of his remarks of Wednesday.

The rules were suspended long enough to authorize the appointment of a committee of fifteen on general conference boundaries.

The reports of the western book agents and board of trustees were shipped in before Dr. Buttz, of Newark, raised a point of order and shut out the report of the Freedmen's Aid society offered by Dr. Hartzwell. On motion of Dr. Neely, of Philadelphia, the unfinished business of the previous day appointing a committee on superannuated ministers was resumed.

Dr. Moore, of Cincinnati, secured the floor and offered a resolution asking for a committee of fifteen on judiciary to consider all appeals, laws, etc. Dr. Moore asked that the committee be appointed by the conference instead of by the bishops. He made the point that it is not good law for a court of appeals to be appointed by the body whose acts are to be reviewed. He had no doubt that the bishops would be glad to be relieved of the responsibility of appointing the committee, and quoted the opinion of several of the bishops before they were elevated to the episcopal board. This brought Bishop Foster to his feet with the remark that the bishops did not care to be dragged into the discussion.

It was evident that a fight was on. Dr. Buckley, of Detroit, with a copy of the ecclesiastical law in his hand, rose to reply to Mr. Moore's forcible address. Dr. Buckley contended that the position of Dr. Moore was fallacious. The bishops, he declared, were more competent than the delegates selected to a general conference. After further discussion Dr. Queat, of central New York, moved, in order to conciliate all factions, that the bishops nominate the committee subject to the confirmation of the general conference. This motion was carried almost unanimously.

A resolution offered by the Chicago German conference to the effect that no member of the Methodist church could belong to or join oath-bound organizations without violating his faith and breaking the fifth commandment, caused a good deal of excitement and would have precipitated a fight but for the opportune action of Dr. Buckley, who asked that it be referred without further reading than the opening declaration, which was ordered.

The reports of the Missionary and Freedmen's Aid societies were received and referred. The call proceeded in a dreary manner, nothing happening to break the quietude except an occasional speech between Dr. Buckley and Bishop Walden over a ruling of the chair. The bishop made rulings and went back on them with a startling frequency. At one time he ruled against Buckley, who, with a book of rules in his hand, walked up to the chair and after showing him his mistake, said deliberately: "Will you revoke your ruling, or compel me to make you publicly apologize for it?" "I beg your pardon," quickly rejoined the bishop and he at once reversed his ruling.

At 1 o'clock the conference adjourned No Afternoon Session.

The conference did not hold a session in the afternoon. Instead the committees met and appointed sub-committees. The temperance and prohibition committee organized by electing Dr. Evans, of Central Illinois, chairman, and Dr. Whitlock, of New Jersey, secretary. Some discussion was had and it is quite evident that there will be some difference of opinion as to the position the church will take in politics regarding the liquor traffic. Four years ago the general conference declared unequivocally for the third party side of the house, but the indications now are that the body won't do it over again this year.

The reading of the report of the bishops at Wednesday's session was an eye-opener in this respect. Dr. Leonard, of Cincinnati, who was the prohibition candidate for governor of Ohio, is one of the leaders of that subject, and as he is chairman of this committee the report will be anxiously awaited by many of the delegates. But little was said yesterday but it is evident that the leaders of the committee do not agree with the bishops.

The committee on episcopacy also met to consider the instructions given them to report if more bishops are needed. There is a strong undercurrent in favor of electing four more bishops, making the total number twenty-two. The surface feeling, however, is against increasing the number at this conference. Those who aspire to a bishop's seat are, of course, in favor of such an election, and their friends are endeavoring to show that the interests of the church demand more bishops.

This committee also has on its hands the biggest fight that promises to occupy the attention of the conference. It will be over the admission of women delegates to the annual and general conferences of the church.

The women folks and their friends are doing a vast deal of lobbying and missionary work.

Last night a temperance mass-meeting was held, at which a number of addresses were made.

AMENDED POSTAL LAWS.

Monthly Publishers Have a Plaint—Food Frauds Shown Up.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Many publishers of monthlies and semi-monthlies throughout the west are writing earnest letters to congressmen urging the passage of the senate bill permitting such publications to be delivered by local mail delivery at regular second-class rates. Under the present laws all second-class mail goes through the mails at one cent per pound. In cities, however, where the publications are issued and where there is free delivery such mail matter, if intended for local delivery, must pay third-class rates of one cent for two ounces, weeklies alone excepted. The object of the law was evidently to prevent daily papers from clogging the mails and saving publishers delivery. The law, however, works an injustice to publishers of monthlies, semi-monthlies and semi-weeklies. It is proposed to amend it so as to except only daily papers from the benefits of local delivery at second-class rates.

Fighting Vice.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Fremont has petitioned Senator Manderson to vote for Henderson's bill amending Section 3893 of the revised statutes so as to make it more stringent upon the subject of excluding indecent matter from the mails. This bill meets with intense widespread opposition from legitimate publishers throughout the country and unless modified will be defeated. It was drawn by some one not familiar with the meaning of certain words in the English language, and it gives the post-office department the most absolute arbitrary censorship of the press, under which there would be more harm done than is permitted by the present lax laws. The bill will probably be modified by the senate committee on judiciary. The spirit is all right.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Platt spoke for three hours in opposition to the pending Choctaw and Chickasaw $3,000,000 resolution, but frankly expressed his opinion that he was addressing an inattentive senate to little purpose. The discussion of the matter is to be continued today until 2 o'clock and Monday until 4:30, when a vote is to be taken on the resolution, rebasing the appropriation. No other public business of interest was done.

The river and harbor appropriation bill was further discussed in the house, the debate being entirely without incident. Mr. Lockwood, of New York, made an effective speech in favor of the appropriation for a channel across Lake St. Clair. The only points where appropriations were increased were at Manitowish, Wis. ($28,000), and for Haverstock river, Maine, which was increased from $10,000 to $16,000 on motion of Mr. Reed. The house then adjourned.

A PUGNACIOUS JUDGE.

Terre Haute's Notorious Jurist Again Distinguishes Himself.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 6.—There was an exciting incident in the circuit court room which culminated in an attempt by Judge Taylor to make a personal assault on ex-Judge Mack. The court had not been convened when Judge Taylor spoke to Judge Mack in regard to some remark the latter is said to have made regarding the action of Judge Taylor in appointing two members of the new grand jury which is to investigate the city contract scandals.

Judge Mack said it was an unheard of proceeding. Judge Taylor became much enraged, called Judge Mack an offensive name, and started toward him, when bystanders caught hold of him and succeeded in quieting him. Judge Taylor is the judge who was recently sat down on by the supreme court for sending the editors of The Express to jail for contempt of court.

Blew His Brains Out.

GEORGETOWN, O., May 6.—Charles K. Theis committed suicide last night by placing a muzzle of a revolver to his temple and sending a ball through his worried brain. He died almost instantly. His wife suicided by the use of chloroform about one year ago. Probably brooding over the death of his wife and other rumored unpleasant circumstances was the cause of the suicide. This was about twenty-three years old. His wife was about twenty at the time of her death.

Firemen Injured.

CINCINNATI, May 6.—John Nolan, William Clark and John Hall, firemen of Engine Company 25, and Fred Leroy, engineer for the company, were badly burned at a fire in the Standard wagon works on Eighth street yesterday. They were buried under the mass of burning timber and shavings which had fallen directly upon them. The other members of the company hastily turned the stream upon the blazing pile, extinguished the flame and pulled the buried men from the debris. The fire in the building was extinguished with a loss of $100.

O'SULLIVAN, THE ICE MAN.

A Life Sentence Ended in the Joliet Penitentiary.

JOLIET, Ill., May 6.—Patrick O'Sullivan, one of the three prisoners sentenced to state prison for life for the murder of Dr. Cronin, of Chicago, died in the prison hospital here at 7:40 yesterday evening. For five days he has been delirious and unable to recognize his friends and relatives who have been at his bedside during his last hours. Ever since he entered the prison his health has been delicate, and as he gave up hope of securing a new trial, he declined an attack of the grip it quickly developed into rapid consumption. It has been known for two weeks that his death was only a question of days.

Of the three men convicted of Dr. Cronin's murder O'Sullivan has been considered the one most likely to make a confession, but there is little doubt that he died without unsealing his lips, unless he told the story of the crime to his confessor.

O'Sullivan rested quietly throughout Wednesday night, and yesterday morning Dr. Ferguson, his physician, reported his condition as slightly improved. During the day he continued in a slightly improved condition, but as the sun began to sink behind the walls which have imprisoned him so long the pulse beats of the iceman became fainter and fainter. Miss Annie O'Sullivan, the prisoner's sister, was at his bedside throughout the day, and at 7 o'clock his brother Henry, from Iowa, arrived and went immediately to the sick room.

At 7:30 o'clock Captain Kane, of the night watch, went to O'Sullivan's ward and saw he was dying. O'Sullivan raised his eyes as the captain entered and apparently recognized him, for he motioned feebly for him to come to his side. Captain Kane put his ears to the dying man's lips and could barely hear the words that came faintly and slowly: "Captain, bring me a drink." These were the last words he spoke. His brother and sister each took a hand of the dying prisoner, and a look of recognition passed over his features. His eyelids then closed, and a faint smile illumined his features, his limbs gave a convulsive twist and the soul of Patrick O'Sullivan escaped from his body.

O'Sullivan maintained his innocence to the last and up to an hour before his death he said he was guiltless. Father Daniels who attended the sick man during his illness said O'Sullivan never spoke a word of confession to him but continually maintained he was innocent. O'Sullivan was thirty-six years old and entered the Joliet penitentiary Jan. 14, 1890. The body will be shipped to Wisconsin where it will be interred.

Patrick O'Sullivan's connection with the conspiracy that resulted in the murder of Dr. P. H. Cronin was so obvious during the trial and evidence so slight tending to clear him has been adduced since that the insinuations of innocence, rather vigorously sent out from Chicago in the last few weeks, appear hollow to the men familiar with the case. From all the evidence he seemed to have entered the clan from patriotic motives, somewhat diluted by the belief that the affair was a good thing to do in a business way. His associations in the clan forced him along to the fore of the conspiracy and finally he found himself hip high in murder.

He was the main instrument in bringing Dr. Cronin from the Conklin's house on the night of May 4, 1889, and that to accomplish the end of the conspiracy he deliberately made friends with the doctor and by a cunning use of Cronin's humane sensibilities completely threw him off his guard against the butchery.

The evidence against O'Sullivan was circumstantial, but so strong as to leave no doubt of his guilt. It was not as strong as the evidence against Burke and Coughlin, and if O'Sullivan had gone on the stand, as he afterward wished he had, he might have turned its force. But standing absolutely uncontradicted it was sufficient in the jury's mind to establish his guilt.

O'Sullivan was not of Irish birth. He was born in America of Irish parentage.

DUE TO CARELESSNESS.

Two Workmen Killed and Two Others Seriously Injured.

NEW YORK, May 6.—A section of the cellar floor in the fourteen-story Havermyer building, now being erected at Cortland and Church streets, this city, fell yesterday. Two workmen were killed and two others injured.

The dead are Albert Zimmer and August Desola.

The injured are: John Hurley, scalp wound; Otto Pabst, scalp wound. The section which fell was eighty feet long by fourteen wide, supported by six steel beams resting on an iron girder. This mass crashed into the cellar where six men were engaged mixing plaster. Zimmer, Desola, Pabst and Hurley were buried in the debris. One hundred tons of mixed plaster had been piled on the floor by order of the contractor, Michael Powers, who is held responsible for the accident and was arrested.

The damage to the building will not exceed $3,000.

Non-Union Men Attacked by Strikers.

CLEVELAND, May 6.—A number of non-union coal handlers went to work in the Valley railroad yards yesterday and were immediately attacked by strikers, who were armed with stones and clubs. Before anybody had been injured, the police arrived upon the scene of the disturbance and put a stop to it. The non-union men are now working under police protection, and the strikers declare that they will cause trouble unless a stop is put to the work.

Crouch Is Dead.

LEBANON, Ky., May 6.—Robert Crouch, the man shot by Winston Anderson at Campbellsville last Tuesday, died last night. The shooting seems to have been a cold-blooded murder. Crouch leaves a widow and several children.

A TRAIN WRECKED.

Accident on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad.

SEVEN PASSENGERS KILLED.

Thirty-Two Others Injured, Several Quite Seriously—The Vestibule Train Went Through a Bridge, Through the Weakening of the Foundations by the Recent Heavy Rains.

FORT MADISON, Ia., May 6.—A disastrous accident occurred on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad twenty-five miles west of here. The vestibule train went through a bridge, through the weakening of the foundations by the recent heavy rains.

Seven persons were killed outright and twenty-three injured. The engineer and fireman are among the killed.

The following is a list of the killed and injured:

The killed are:

Mrs. J. H. Letting, Raton, New Mexico.

There are only three of the injured who are seriously hurt.

RUSHVILLE CONFLAGRATION.

One Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 6.—The Indianapolis fire department, which was called to a fire at Rushville yesterday morning, has returned. The fire was controlled after burning five hours.

It began in Foutz & Moffett's planing mill, inflicting a loss there of $6,000. The flames crossed the street to Norris, Pearce & Company's furniture works, the largest factory in Rushville, inflicting a loss of from $5,000 to $6,000—partly insured. All the surrounding residences and buildings within a square were burned.

Assistant Superintendent Barrett, of the Indianapolis department, who went with the engine to the fire, says the loss may reach $100,000. The fire was not in the center of the town, but on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis railway. It was blazing in a lumber yard fiercely when Barrett's force arrived.

The single Rushville fire company had more than it could do. Three cisterns and wells were exhausted before the fire was controlled. J. H. Carr and Mary Winston lose $1,500 each on residences; M. Simms, $500; H. Lane, $800. Householders for many blocks removed their goods, and the town was in a state of consternation until 5 o'clock.

Charged with Robbery.

Oil City, Pa., May 6.—Postoffice Inspector McCalmont Thursday arrested a man about thirty-five years old at Franklin, and brought him to this city and locked him up. The prisoner's name is Clyde P. Hamilton, of St. Louis, and is charged with being implicated in the postoffice robbery at Chicago, Butler county, and several other burglaries. He claimed to have come to the oil country to secure oil leases, but acknowledged that he had not secured any leases. He had plenty of money when arrested.

A Murderous Father.

CARLSLE, Ind., May 6.—In a family quarrel last night Jack Griffin, a well-to-do business man, sent four bullets through his eighteen-year-old son's body, leaving him in a dying condition. No cause is assigned.

Chinese Exclusion Bill a Law.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The president signed yesterday afternoon the Chinese exclusion bill. The new law, therefore, becomes operative at once.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky, generally fair; cooler in extreme western portion; slightly warmer in North-eastern Kentucky; south-west winds.

WHAT! Here are the California Republicans demanding "the free and unlimited coinage of silver."

THE announcement of Judge Garland as a candidate for State Senator appears elsewhere in this issue. From the information at hand he is the only candidate Lewis County Democrats will present, and he is not likely to have any opposition in this county for the nomination. He is a lawyer by profession and has been for many years a successful practitioner at the Vanceburg Bar. He is also a farmer—owning one of the best Ohio river bottom farms in the county on which he lives and which he has run successfully for many years.

TAXING CORPORATIONS.

Provisions of the New Revenue Bill as Adopted by the House. Legislative Doings.

That clause of the new Revenue bill in reference to taxing certain corporations, reads as follows as passed by the lower House of the Legislature: "Every incorporated bank, trust company, guarantee and security company, gas company, bridge company, street car company, express company, telegraph company, and telephone company, where its lines extend beyond the limit of one county, palace, sleeping, dining, or other car company, which has its cars conveyed on regular trips over any railroad not owned by it, and all other corporations, as may be required by the Auditor of Public Accounts, shall, between the fifteenth day of September and the first day of October of each year, make and deliver to the Auditor of Public Accounts of this State a statement, verified by its President, Cashier, Secretary, Treasurer, Manager, or other chief officer or agent who may be familiar therewith, in such form as the Auditor may prescribe, showing the following facts: The name and principal place of business of the corporation; the kind of business engaged in; the amount of capital stock, preferred and common; the number of shares of each; the amount of stock paid up; the par and real value thereof; the highest price at which such stock was sold at a bona fide sale within twelve months next before the fifteenth day of September of the year in which the statement is required to be made; the amount of surplus fund and undivided profits and the value of all other assets; the total amount of indebtedness as principal; the amount of gross and net earnings or income, including interest on investments, and income from all other sources for twelve months next preceding the fifteenth day of September of the year in which the statement is required; the amount and kind of tangible property in this State, and where situated, assessed, or liable to assessment in this State, and the fair cash value thereof, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, and such other facts as the Auditor may require."

This was amended so as to include water companies, ferry companies, and "every railroad which conveys or has its cars conveyed over the railroad of another company or companies, or which operates a railroad in this State under lease, and when its property is not taxed under the provisions of article 6 of this chapter."

Pass Him Around.

E. W. Mitchell, who tried to defraud the Paris lodge of Oddfellows on a forged order for sick benefits, succeeded in swindling the lodge at Ironton out of $40. A reward of $50 is offered for his capture.

He is about thirty years old, five feet seven inches tall, weighs one hundred and forty pounds, dark complexion, brown mustache and short hair. He is a quick talker with a coarse voice. Mitchell's methods appear to be to get access to a lodge-room, secure a number of letter-heads, stamp the seal upon them, and use these sheets for his forged orders. He is a dangerous customer.

The committee reported that the proposition to extend the water system to the Sixth ward was not satisfactory, and that Superintendent Schaeffer, of the water company, was preparing a new proposition. The matter was continued in the hands of the committee.

The question of refunding a fine against T. M. Fowler was referred back to the Committee on Laws and Ordinances and the City Prosecutor, with power to act. The Mayor's judgment was reversed by the Circuit Court, and two or three parties are claiming the money.

Mr. Ficklin reported he had sold the rock in the old station house to Messrs. Lane & Worick, for Mr. M. C. Russell, at $1.50 a perch.

The question of improving Grant street extension was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements, with instructions to confer with property-holders and agree as to grade, &c.

A brick gutter was ordered put down on north side of Third street from Cherry alley to Mr. C. H. White's property.

The ordinance to regulate the peddling of spectacles was read. Mr. Wadsworth moved that the license be fixed at $100 a day. This brought out a lively talk, Messrs. Wood, Dryden and Newell opposing the motion. Mr. Wood was opposed to building a "Chinese wall" around the town. He thought the people ought to have the right to deal with whom they pleased. He moved, as a substitute, to fix the license at $35 a year, and the motion prevailed by a vote of eight to seven. The fine for a violation of the ordinance was fixed at $50, and the ordinance was then adopted.

The petition of Gray & Co. for coffee house license on Fleming pike was withdrawn.

Concerning the establishment of a night school, Mr. Wadsworth reported that the Board of Education had the matter under consideration, but nothing had been done as the vacation is so near at hand. The committee was granted further time.

The ordinance to prevent itinerant physicians from practicing in this city was presented and read. Mr. Wood opposed it. He thought it was some more "Chinese wall" business. Shut out the quacks and yet the drugstores were full of quack medicines. The ordinance was adopted by a vote of 11 to 4. The penalty is a fine of $50 for each day.

Property-owners on Mulberry alley, Fifth ward, presented a grievance as to the condition of said alley. The matter was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

The coffee house license of Karr & Co. was transferred to Gray & Co.

The following permits were granted: John K. Edgington; to erect a two-story frame house on the south side of Second street, Sixth ward, on the Hall plat.

John Altmeyer; to erect a two-story frame house on north side of Second street, West End.

M. C. Russell & Son; to erect a one-story shed on Market street space—in which to conduct business during the work of erecting their new building.

The Assessor's books were presented and received, and May 20 was set as the date for Council to meet to hear complaints, if any.

An ordinance to prevent tampering with the street mailing-boxes was presented and read. The rules were suspended and the ordinance was adopted. The penalty is a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50.

The Sons of Temperance were refunded a license of $3 collected for the recent entertainment at Mitchell's Chapel.

The Ways and Means Committee was authorized to borrow $2,500 for current expenses. Of this $1,000 was for the school fund. It was stated that the fund was entitled to about $3,000 from the county, but it had not been paid over.

The petition of John Ballenger for permission to move the big watch across the street to his new place of business was refused, by a vote of 8 to 7. The matter was then referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

Assessor Huff was allowed $200 for making the assessment this year, and the members of the Board of Equalization were allowed the usual salary.

The question of substituting an electric light for the two gas lamps at the Limestone bridge was referred to the Committee on Gas.

The application of Mr. John Shephard and others to have an alley near their homes paved was the subject of much discussion. Mr. Wadsworth and others were opposed to it, and claimed that Council had no right to order such work done at the city's expense. Mr. Wood said he knew twelve or fifteen other alleys had been improved under orders from Council, and that the city had even spent over $100 on the Lexington pike under instructions from Council. He remarked that that was in front of Mr. Wadsworth's property, and Mr. Wadsworth didn't oppose the expenditure. Mr. Wood concluded by saying that Mr. Shephard and the other petitioners were taxed to help keep up the streets and alleys elsewhere, and he thought they were entitled to some benefit from the money they paid. He was in favor of improving the alley. The motion to order the work done was lost.

After some further business of minor importance Council adjourned.

ALBA HEYWOOD and his peerless company will be the attraction at the opera house to-night. An exchange says: "Heywood is a remarkable genius. His impersonations of comic characters we have never seen surpassed. His versatility is wonderful. One moment a trembling old woman, next a simpering bashful boy. The music was fine, Dewey Heywood's flute playing magnificent. The audience was delighted with the whole performance and applauded unstintingly." Tickets now on sale at Nelson's.

KENTUCKY EDITORS.

Elaborate Preparations For Their Reception By the Lexington Press Association.

The Committee on Toasts of the Lexington Press Association have arranged the following programme for the banquet to be given the State Press Association next Wednesday night:

Invocation, Rev. Dr. H. M. Scudder, of Carlisle, Ky.; "The Commonwealth at Home," Governor John Young Brown; "The Commonwealth Abroad," T. T. Crittenden, of Missouri; "The Penny-rile," Urey Woodson, of the Owensboro Messenger; "The Mountains," Thomas H. Arnold, of the Middlesborough Critic; "Lexington, the Gem of the Blue Grass," William Preston Kimball, of Lexington; "Education," Judge W. M. Beckner; "The Ladies," Judge J. Soule Smith, of Lexington; "The Doctors," Dr. Joe Bryan, of Lexington; "The Lawyers," Emmet Logan, editor of the Louisville Times; "Our Poets," Major Henry T. Stanton, of Frankfort; "The Press," Colonel E. Polk Johnson, of the Frankfort Capital.

Colonel John O. Hodges, President of the Lexington Press Association, will preside as toastmaster.

Alba Heywood To-night.

Speaking of Alba Heywood's appearance at that place, the Houston Post says: "He kept the audience well entertained and highly amused whenever he appeared before them. His laughing song, his parody of 'The Raven' and his Chinese delineation were very clever, indeed, but the best of it all was his character impersonation of Silly Billy, in which he imitated the phonograph and did a great deal of what he calls 'phunny biz niz.' Of the musical features of the programme the most artistic and the most thoroughly enjoyable, perhaps, was the rendering of Schubert's Serenade, by Miss Sigfried, accompanied by Mr. Higgins on the cornet. Miss Sigfried was rapturously encored over and over again. Mr. Julian Jordan also sang several ballads with good effect and was highly appreciated. Mr. Higgins' cornet solo was applauded, and so, also, was the violin solo of Miss Flora Drescher and the flute solos of Mr. Dewey Heywood. Altogether the company is a strong one and gives an entertainment which greatly pleases the audience."

NECESSITY KNOWS NO LAW!

We must have money! We must have $40,000, no matter how great the loss! Circumstances beyond our control compel us to raise this money, hence our GREAT REDUCTION SALE. Every day our sales have shown all we asked since the commencement of our big cut in order to double our former sales. We sold twice the quantity of goods that we had ever sold before during the same time, but we did not take in a corresponding amount of money. Any one can see that 1,000 Suits worth $15 each, when sold at their actual value, will amount to $15,000, but when they are sold at $7.50 a Suit, as the case has been with us, the money in drawer only counts up half as much. This ratio of actual value of goods sold and amount of cash received was universal throughout the store—Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, Hats, Underwear, &c., all sold for prices far less than their intrinsic worth.

This month bargains will be better. We know full well that the season has been backward; that money is scarce and that times are hard. We also know that we must turn our stock into cash. We know that to do so we must offer extraordinary inducements in prices. This we have done, and persons who will come to our store during this, the second, month of this unprecedented, unparalleled and unexpected force sale of Fine Goods, can realize from the qualities and low prices how great is the necessity for us to turn our merchandise into money.

Our Spring Stock comprises everything that is new and nobby in Men's, and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Neckwear, &c., and you are invited to come in and look around whether you wish to purchase or not.

Thanking you for past favors, and urging all to take advantage of this rare opportunity, we are Respectfully, Conventions Held in a Number of States.

MOST ALL OF THEM REPUBLICAN.

An Exciting Day at the Illinois Capital.
Governor Fifer Renominated on the First Ballot and the Delegates-at-Large Instructed for Harrison—Conventions in Other States.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 6.—The convention reassembled at 9 o'clock and another day of excitement was apparent from the very beginning. The action of the committee on resolutions in recommending the repeal of the compulsory school law, and the substitution thereof of greatly modified legislation, had created a spirit of discontent in certain quarters and the action of the committee to select delegates-at-large had also dissatisfied the Young Republican league as well as the colored gentlemen who assumed to represent their race on the floor of the convention, and it appeared that the era of good feeling had passed.

Chairman Hopkins immediately after calling the convention to order declared the reports of committees to be in order. The sitting delegates were declared to be the regular delegates and the temporary officers were made the permanent officers of the convention.

Governor Fifer was renominated on the first ballot. The vote was as follows: Fifer, 94; Longenecker, 120; Clark, 93; Hunt, 31; Marsh, 30.

The ticket was completed as follows: Lyman B. Fay for lieutenant governor, Isaac N. Pearson for secretary of state, General C. W. Pavey for auditor, Henry L. Hertz for state treasurer, and George W. Prince for attorney general.

The platform attributes the present prosperity of the nation to the policy of protection of the Republican party as expressed in the McKinley tariff law; endorses President Harrison, and instructs the delegates-at-large to give their support for his renomination; expresses admiration for Secretary Blaine's brilliant conduct of the state department, and opposes the free coinage of silver.

West Virginia Republicans.
MARTINSBURG, W. Va., May 6.—The Republican state convention for choosing delegates-at-large to Minneapolis, which opened here yesterday, closed its labors yesterday evening. It was largely attended and enthusiastic. The convention was called to order by A. W. Fleming, of Fairmont, who was afterward elected permanent chairman. R. W. Fast was elected permanent secretary.

The following were chosen delegates after a hard fight: Hon. C. Burdette Hart, of Wheeling; Hon. T. E. Davis, of Grafton; Colonel J. D. Hewitt, of Kanawha, and Hon. J. A. Hutchinson, of Parkersburg.

The resolutions adopted endorsed the administration and the McKinley bill. The unseating of General Goff as governor in 1888 was denounced. Although the delegation was uninstructed, all are Harrison men and are practically pledged to Harrison.

Kansas Republicans.
HUTCHINSON, Kan., May 6.—When the Republican state convention was called to order, it was with difficulty that the seven hundred and twenty delegates could be drawn from their work in caucus and various headquarters of the would-be congressmen.

After organization the convention proceeded to the election of six delegates-at-large to Minneapolis; ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls was elected by acclamation to head the delegation. The other delegates are Calvin Hood, of Emporia; C. C. James (colored), of Lawrence; L. A. Bigger, of Hutchinson; E. C. Little, of Abilene; A. H. Ellis, of Beloit.

For congressman-at-large, ex-Governor George T. Anthony, of Ottawa, was elected.

No instructions were given the delegation to the national convention, but the following resolution endorsing Harrison's administration was adopted: "That as President Harrison's administration has been eminently sound and able and has so strongly commended itself to the business interests of the country, that the Republicans of Kansas stand united for his renomination and election."

Delaware Republicans.
DOVER, Del., May 6.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday. Senator Anthony Higgins and General James H. Wilson, of New Castle county; George V. Massey, of Kent, and J. Frank Bacon and George F. Pierce, of Sussex, were elected as the national delegates.

The national delegates were not instructed, but Harrison is their choice. Delegates-at-large are an unknown quantity in Delaware, district delegates being the state's only representatives in both parties.

Shortest Convention on Record.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., May 6.—Sixty delegates representing the counties of Butler, Beaver, Mercer and Lawrence met in district convention here yesterday, and chose Hon. M. S. Quay, of Beaver, and David W. Pierson, of this city, national delegates to the Republican convention at Minneapolis. E. E. Abrams, of Butler, and James J. Davidson, of Beaver, were selected as alternates. The convention was the shortest on record. The meeting was called to order at twenty minutes to 2, and at twelve minutes to 2 had adjourned.

Vermont Democrats.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 6.—The Democratic state convention was called to order yesterday by Chairman Atkins, of the state committee, whose reference to Cleveland evoked great applause. Stephen Shurtleff was made chairman. Bradley B. Smalley, of Burlington, was nominated for governor. The platform adopted expresses approval of Cleveland's administration and determination to renew efforts for tariff reform. Delegates to the national convention were elected but are uninstructed.

Virginia Republicans.
ROANOKE, Va., May 6.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday and elected the following delegates: Delegates-at-large, General William Mahone, S. Brown Allen, A. W. Harris, Hon. Henry Bowen. Alternates, Colonel J. S. Browning, R. A. Paul, M. C. Cardozo, J. W. Simmons. Electors-at-large, Hon. A. I. Mooklar, Robert J. Walker. The delegates were not instructed.

Minnesota Republicans.
ST. PAUL, May 6.—The Republican state convention yesterday selected the following delegates to Minneapolis: John S. Pillsbury, Stanford Newell, Frank A. Day and F. B. Daugherty. They are uninstructed but are for Blaine and will not vote for Harrison unless he is certain of the nomination without their votes. The convention was uproariously for Blaine from start to finish.

Wisconsin Republicans.
MILWAUKEE, May 6.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday afternoon and chose delegates-at-large and alternates as follows. Delegates-at-large—John C. Spooner, Lucius Fairchild and Isaac Stephenson. Alternates—M. A. Thayer, John Ruka, Robert McMillan and H. D. Smith.

Idaho Republicans.

POCATELLO, Id., May 6.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday and selected delegates to Minneapolis and instructed them to cast their vote for Blaine if he can be induced to run. Their second choice is President Harrison.

Rhode Island Republicans.
PROVIDENCE, May 6.—The Republican state convention elected W. C. Roelker, Samuel P. Colt, W. M. Gregory, and Frank C. Harris delegates-at-large to Minneapolis. Blaine's name was cheered and Harrison's still more.

AN ENGINEER'S FATE.

Taken from His Cab Unconscious and the Cause Unknown.

FONDA, N. Y., May 6.—Billy Wipple, the engineer on the fast freight coming east on the Central road, was taken from his engine at this place yesterday. He was unconscious and his head and face were terribly bruised. He will probably die. His fireman says that two miles east of Palatine bridge, he called to the engineer, and, receiving no response, went over and found his head and shoulders hanging out of the cab window. He was unconscious and presented a bruised and bloody appearance.

The fireman ran the train through to Fonda. He is of the opinion that Engineer Wipple struck his head against some obstruction. Railroad men say, however, that there is no obstruction on the road between Palatine and Fonda. Those who assisted the engineer from the cab were surprised to find his chain dangling from his pocket. His watch was handed to the authorities by the fireman, who said he picked it up in the cab. It is said that Wipple had a hundred dollar bill in his pocket when he started on the trip, but there was found a little over $40 on his person here. An investigation will be held.

OLD JOHN,
The Louisville Horsechief, Well and Fully Identified.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 6.—John Harris, an antiquarian in thievery, who was arrested at Louisville yesterday, and who claimed that he was a Cincinnati mission worker, is none other than John Maxwell, who is known in penitentiary circles in Stillwater, Minn.; Joliet, Ill.; Michigan City, Ind., and Jeffersonville, Indiana.

He has served forty years behind the bars. Old John, as he is called, was released from the penitentiary here Jan. 28, 1892, after serving three years for stealing a horse and buggy in Dearborn county, Ind. He is a pronounced horse-thief, and when in prison here, said he could not but recall the number of horses he had stolen; but they numbered in the hundreds. He is seventy-five years old, has a glib tongue, and, by prison officials, is said to be one of the slickest criminals on the road.

Fatal Results of a Quarrel.

AKRON, O., May 6.—"He was doing me, and I hit him with a chunk of iron." That is the way Andre Leclair described a fight between himself and Fred Russell, which occurred yesterday, and resulted in the death of Russell late last night. Leclair and Russell were employed in the knife works of the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing company. Russell and some other boys angered Leclair by throwing iron shavings at him. Russell was nineteen years old and Leclair twenty. The latter was arrested this morning on the charge of murder.

Defended Herself with a Hatchet.

LIMA, O., May 6.—Last night Emma Wells, a lewd woman, was locked up to await the result of injuries inflicted upon Hugh Cooney in a free-for-all fight the night previous. The affair happened in a house of ill-repute, when Cooney and his brother assaulted her. She defended herself with a hatchet and cut Cooney's head open. He is in a dying condition.

Attacked by a Tiger.

READING, Pa., May 6.—Lawrence W. Scott, who has charge of several vicious tigers belonging to Forepaugh's circus, was attacked by one of the animals here yesterday and seriously injured. His scalp was lacerated in a frightful manner, but he will probably recover. He was taken to the hospital. Scott lives in St. Paul.

Prominent Railroad Man Dead.

PITTSBURG, May 6.—William P. Shinn, whose reputation as a prominent railroad man was national, died Thursday at his residence in Homewood, near this city. Death was caused by a complication of diseases, his illness dating from January last. Mr. Shinn was very wealthy.
